Craigellachie is Pointe au Baril's oldest remaining cottage and embodies every bit of charm that comes with such a title. The 1.61 acre private island boasts both open water views and a sheltered harbour and is a short boat ride from the revered Ojibway Club.

The restored main cottage is a grand 6 bedroom cottage and is complimented by two guest cottages each with their own living room, kitchen and fireplace. In its present configuration the island has 9 bedrooms and is ideal for two families or as a multi-generational compound.
